Avista Adventist Hospital Presents

inspiration in Women's Wellness Luncheon

Avista Adventist Hospital's motivational luncheon and expert-led health breakout sessions returns for its fifth year! We invite you to bring a friend and share this invitation with your network!

How to live a stress-free, restful, and less-rushed life

Do you want more time in your life to pursue your goals and dreams, to rest, and to enjoy life? Joshua Becker is a bestselling author and sought-after speaker that talks about the benefits of intentional living for your mind, body, and spirit. Countless studies have shown how minimalism jumpstarts intentional living by forcing us to identify what's most important. It is time to capture the lost practice of rest and start living again.
